

United States Attorney's Office
Attention: Tiffany Langton
53 Pleasant Street, 4th Floor
Concord, NH 03301

Human Trafficking: Modern Day Slavery It Can Happen Anywhere

Hosted By:

The United States Attorney's Office
District of New Hampshire

And

New England Regional Community
Policing Institute

Best Western—Executive Court

Manchester, NH

Highlights

Human Trafficking: Modern Day Slavery

Human Trafficking Laws

Forms of Human Trafficking

Trafficking Victim Indicators

Investigative Techniques & Strategies

Psychological Effects on the Victim

Victim Resources

Agenda

7:30am—8:30am Coffee/Registration

8:30am—8:45am Opening Remarks
United States Attorney Thomas Colantuono

8:45am—10:00am Human Trafficking
Laws
Assistant US Attorney Mark Zuckerman

10:00am—10:15am Break

10:15am—11:30am Victim Perspectives
Project Reach, Elizabeth Hopper, Ph.D.

11:30am—12:30pm Investigative Techniques
Division of Boston FBI, SA Tamara Harty

12:30pm—1:30pm Lunch/Video

1:30pm—2:15pm Victim Resources
Department of Justice, Criminal Section, Civil Rights
Division, Matthew Gallagher

2:15pm—2:30pm Break

2:30pm—3:15pm Strategies for Effective
Enforcement of Human Trafficking Laws
NEU, College of Criminal Justice, Associate Dean of Research & Graduates Studies, Jack McDevitt, Associate Director, Institute of Race and Justice, Amy Farrell

3:15pm—4:15pm Scenarios—Pulling It All
Together, Moderator, Victim Witness Coordinator,
Sheila Jenkins-Hamilton

4:15pm—4:30pm Wrap Up

Directions

Sheila Jenkins-Hamilton,
VWC
603-225-1552 x 227
sheila.jenkins-
hamilton@usdoj.gov

Tiffany Langton, VWA
603-225-1552 x 203
Tiffany.langton@usdoj.gov

November 5, 2008

Best Western —Executive Court, Manchester, NH

Human Trafficking exists in two forms: obtaining labor or services from someone through the use of force, fraud or coercion; and using force, fraud, or coercion to compel someone to be a prostitute or trafficking children into prostitution. Human Trafficking is local. Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York and Connecticut have prosecuted cases already.

Assistant United States Attorney, Mark Zuckerman

Department of Justice Criminal Section, Civil Rights Division, Matthew Gallagher

Associate Dean for Research & Graduates, Jack McDevitt

Project Reach, Elizabeth Hopper, Ph.D.

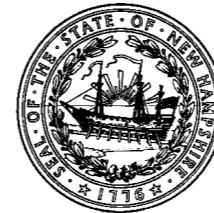

Boston Division FBI, SA Tamara Harty

Sponsored by:

And...

Registration Form

Best Western—Executive Court
Manchester, NH

PLEASE TYPE OR PRINT CLEARLY. INDICATE NAME AS IT SHOULD APPEAR ON CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE. RETURN THIS FORM TO: Tiffany Langton, VWA, United States Attorneys Office, 53 Pleasant Street, Concord, NH 03301. Tel: (603) 230-2503, Fax (603) 225-1470 e-mail: Tiffany.Langton@usdoj.gov

Please detach form and Mail, Fax or Email

Name

Agency and Title

Address

Phone Number

Fax Number

REGISTRATION IS FREE space is limited!
Register Early

Lunch will be included.

- Lodging is available at the government rate of $99. If you'd like to book a room you can contact the Best Western at (877) 574-2464.