Midyear Meeting Professionalism Day

Radisson Hotel/Center of NH
Manchester

Ambassadors
OF THE PROFESSION

Featuring

MICHAEL TIGAR & MARK CURRIDEN

Early Bird Deadline
February 1, 2012

Supporting members of the Legal Profession and Their Service to the Public and Justice System.

Ambassadors OF THE PROFESSION

Lawyers and judges are tasked with defending the rule of law, of upholding and defending the Constitution, and with giving it all in advocacy for a client. That's a weighty role, and one which the public tends to misunderstand. As Ambassadors of the Profession, lawyers and judges must be ethical, able and vocal advocates for their clients and for those that stand before the bench. This year's Professionalism Day and Midyear Meeting programs will give you the tools not only to have the courage to stand up for your profession through your actions, but will also teach you the most effective ways of conveying your message.

In the morning, nationally recognized criminal defense attorney, Michael Tigar will kindle the fire of pride for the practice of law. Professor emeritus, American University, Washington School of Law, Michael Tigar has argued seven cases before the US Supreme Court and more than 100 appellate cases, and he has been involved in many high-profile cases, including representing Terry Nichols in the Oklahoma City bombing case; John Demanjanjuk, a Ukrainian immigrant accused of being a notorious Nazi concentration camp guard; and activist Angela Davis, who faced murder charges in the death of Judge Harold Haley.

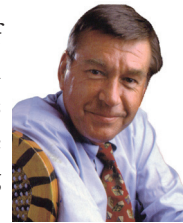

In the afternoon, lawyer and nationally acclaimed author Mark Curriden will teach you to take that fire and spread it throughout the community. Curriden wrote previously for the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and the Dallas Morning News, and served as communications director for the law firm Vinson & Elkins. He is a NY Times best-selling author.

PROFESSIONALISM:

The Skill to Know, the Courage to Do with Michael Tigar

8:30 a.m. to Noon ~ 3 NHCLE Ethics/Prof. Credits

Drawn from a lifetime of experience, keen observation and research, Michael Tigar presents "The Skill to Know, the Courage to Do," the 2012 Midyear Meeting Professionalism Day program.

With presentation elements which include portions modeled after dramatic courtroom confrontations, sublime artistic renderings, and life as we know it, Tigar outlines his "Nine Principles."

You'll remember why you entered the legal practice when you hear Tigar's inspiring guide to what it means to be a lawyer and a guardian of justice in the 21st century. Expect deep inspiration. Your expectation will be fulfilled.

PRACTICING IN PUBLIC:

Advocacy, Media Relations and Public Speaking with Mark Curriden

2:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. ~ 2 NHCLE Ethics/Prof. Credits

Returning to New Hampshire after a widely successful program last year, lawyer and best-selling author Mark Curriden will teach you the most effective ways of being ambassadors to the profession, via public outreach and other activities.

Lawyers have various responsibilities as officers of the court and members of the Bar. One of the most important, according to the ABA and its Model Rules of Professional Conduct, is the lawyer's duty to "further the public understanding of, and confidence in, the rule of law and the justice system."

HONORS & AWARDS LUNCHEON

12:15 p.m. – 2:15 p.m.

The Honors and Awards Luncheon will feature the presentation of awards honoring public service and the community lawyer as well as a keynote speaker to be announced. Awards presented include: Distinguished Service to the Public Award; Vickie M. Bunnell Award for Community Service; Outstanding Service in Public Sector/Public Interest Award; and various service awards from the NH Pro Bono Referral Program. Don't miss it!

Lunch is included in all packages.
