

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT COMMITTEE ANNOUNCEMENT

Effective June 1, 2010, Jennifer B. Sargent will become the new Disciplinary Counsel at the New Hampshire Supreme Court Attorney Discipline Office, replacing Landya B. McCafferty, who assumes her new position as Magistrate Judge at the United States District Court for the District of New Hampshire.

Jenn Sargent has been a District Court Special Justice and a member of the Supreme Court Complaint Screening Committee. She has taught at Vermont Law School and Dartmouth College and served on the faculty of the National Judicial College in Reno, Nevada. She has also practiced with the New Hampshire Public Defender/Appellate Defender.

Jenn has lectured and participated on panels, both locally and nationally, on a variety of ethical and legal issues.