Club Overview

The NHBA•CLE Club program offers many CLE opportunities each year - programs that feature some of New Hampshire's most knowledgeable and experienced practitioners and judges. Topics include a full array of important, timely and practical opportunities for top-shelf continuing legal education. By becoming a CLE Club member, you will enjoy a substantial discount on the registration price of all standard NHBA•CLE programs. (Certain restrictions apply - see terms and conditions.)

Our Commitment to You

We know that you have many options when it comes to obtaining CLE credits. By becoming a member of the NHBA•CLE Club, you are demonstrating confidence in the quality of the programs and services offered by the New Hampshire Bar Association. Our programs are developed by in-the-trenches New Hampshire practitioners especially for fellow bar members. We stand by the quality of our programs and products. If you are ever dissatisfied with an NHBA•CLE program or product, please let us know.

2019-2020 NHBA•CLE Club Terms and Conditions

- Club membership is non-transferable. Your NHBA•CLE Club membership discount is available to you alone. Any non-Club member substitute will be charged the full registration fee.
- Club membership discounts will be offered for any live or video replay programs and most online programs that are presented exclusively by the New Hampshire Bar Association's Continuing Legal Education Committee. Club membership discounts will not be available for programs including, but not limited to: limited attendance programs; programs co-sponsored with other organizations; programs offered through a contractual agreement with a professional or out-of-state speaker or organization; and some online programs.
- All Club member registrations are subject to NHBA•CLE policies regarding late fees and cancellation fees, as described in the NHBA•CLE registration information appearing regularly in the NH Bar News.
- 2019-2020 Club membership applies to programs offered from July 2019 through June 2020.
- The New Hampshire Bar Association reserves the right to limit the number of memberships sold.
